REVIEWS – WINE ENTHUSIAST / VIRGINIE BOONE (JUNE/AUGUST 2020)

• 2018 PINOT NOIR •

"This is a high-toned, earthy and textured wine that overdelivers on its price point, presenting complex Asian spice, black-tea and candied cherry and raspberry flavor. The tannins are soft and well-integrated, as is the oak, allowing plenty of room for nuance and elegant composure." – Editor's Choice

• 2017 CABERNET SAUVIGNON •

"This attractively priced 100% varietal red is aged in French oak, 50% of it new, an impressive addition to the flavors in the wine. Cherry-covered chocolate richness is complemented by a bright thread of acidity and tension in this structured, complex wine." – Editor's Choice
